1. The number of required courses specified here is the maximum, and there may be fewer required courses than specified in the program, or all of the credited courses in the program may consist of elective courses.
2. One of the courses specified in the program must be a departmental Research Methods and Publication Ethics course, or the GS 599 course offered by the Institute must be added to the program. (There must be at least a 1-credit Ethics course)
3. The ECTS credits of two courses should be 5 instead of 7.5, in accordance with the regulations, to allow for taking two undergraduate courses.
