1. The number of required courses specified here is a maximum; the program may include fewer required courses, or all credit-bearing courses in the program may consist entirely of electives.

2. One of the courses listed in the program must either be a department-specific Research Methods and Publication Ethics course or include the GS 599 course offered by the Graduate School. (There must be at least one ethics course worth a minimum of 1 credit.)

3. In accordance with regulations, the ECTS credits of 2 courses must be 5 instead of 7.5 to allow the inclusion of 2 undergraduate courses.
